

Officer Football Club

Code of Conduct

Purpose

The Officer Football Club Code of Conduct sets out the standards of behaviour and expectations for all individuals involved in the Club.

Our Players, Coaches, Officials, Parents/Guardians, Members, Supporters & Committee Members are expected to:

- Create a welcoming environment
- Not behave in a manner that would damage the reputation of the Club either on or off the field
- Not use offensive language, behavior or engage in any form of misconduct
- Display consistently high standards of good sporting behavior, and respecting any official's decisions
- Always welcome opposition players, spectators and officials to the Club
- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of every person regardless of their gender, ability, cultural background or religion
- Whilst wearing club attire, attending club events you are representing the Officer Football Club and you are expected to follow Club rules
- Look after Club property and facilities
- Adhere to and support the Club's policies and procedures
- Be prepared to be responsible for your actions.

By registering in Play HQ as a player, official, volunteer or working in some capacity at the Officer Football Club you are automatically bound by our Code of Conduct and understand that should there be any breach, the Club reserves the right to take any necessary action it deems is warranted. This may include suspension or expulsion.
